

Lover

---

||: D | / | D | / |
| D | / | G | D |
Like a man comes to an altar, He came into this town
| D | F#m | G | A |
With the world upon His shoulders, and promises passed down
| Bm | F#m | G | A | / |
And He went into the water, His Father, He was pleased
| D A/C# | Bm A | G A :|| (repeat for 3 verses)
He built it and He'll tear it down so we will be set free

He found thieves and salesmen living in His father's house
And He knows how they got in here and He knows how to get 'em out
He's turning this place over from floor to balcony
And then just like these doves and sheep oh we will be set free

See, He's always been a lover from before He drew a breath
Some things He loved easy and some He loved to death
Because love's no politician, it listens carefully
So of those who come He can't lose one, so we will be set free

| D | / | G | D |
Go on and take His picture, go on and make Him up
| D | F#m | G | A |
He'll still be our defender and we'll be His missing sons
| Bm | F#m | G | A | / |
And He'll send out an army just to bring us back and see...
| D A/C# | Bm A | G A | D | / |
That regardless of the brother's lies oh we will be set free

| D | / | G | D |
I am my beloved's and my beloved's mine
| D | F#m | G | A |
So we'll bring all our history and He'll bring the bread and wine
| Bm | F#m | G | A | / |
And we'll have us a party where all drinks are on Him
| D A/C# | Bm A | G A | D |
Then as surely as the rising sun oh we will be set free
| G A | D ||
Oh, we will be set free!
